The Coming Conflict With China

Hong Kong was originally ruled by China up to the Qing dynasty in 1842 when the Treaty of Nanking ceded the island to the British Empire and later expanded to include the Kowloon Peninsula in 1860 after the Second Opium War and later by the Convention for the Extension of Hong Kong Territory in 1898 to lease the New Territories. From 1941 to 1945, it was occupied by the Japanese Empire.

The Coming Collapse of China is a book by Gordon G. Chang, published in 2001, in which he argues that the Communist Party of China (CPC) is the root cause of many of the People's Republic of China's problems and will cause its collapse in the near future. His book also made specific forecasts on the year that the

The Coming Collapse of China - Wikipedia

Although written in 2001, many of the underlying causes of the coming collapse of china are integral parts of any Omnipotent Bureaucratic System, because all decision making in such states, are made for purely political reasons, and most of their remedies to any problem are counter-productive. Chang provides plenty of examples of these ...
